

Trade Basics – Plasterboard Fixing and Finishing

The planning, building and finishing of a home or commercial building has a large number of important considerations. This guide provides you with the essential information needed when installing GIB® systems.